HOUSTON . . . A Legacy

Our story began 129 years ago, after Texas won her independence from Mexico. It was April 21, 1836, when General Sam Houston led his small army in the decisive Battle of San Jacinto.

The Allen brothers, Augustus and John, founded Houston along the banks of Buffalo Bayou where side-wheelers snaked their way amid trees and debris. They chose the name "Houston" for their dream city reasoning that the magic name of Texas' hero would help put their infant town on the map. This it did.

General Sam Houston served as the first president of the Republic of Texas. The capitol was a two-story white frame building at the corner of Main and Texas where the Rice Hotel now stands.

From this inauspicious beginning, Houston has surged to dominance. Today it is a metropolis nearing two million, first city in the south and sixth in the nation. It is the center of the vast petrochemical industry and a hub of world commerce.

It is a clean air-conditioned city of imposing buildings, high-rise apartments, lovely homes, majestic churches, twelve colleges and universities, acres of shady parks and fountains splashing rainbow hued in the sun.

Here cultural advantages meet the colorful west. The Museum of Fine Arts houses a $6 million permanent collection, including a famed Remington collection. Sam Houston Historical Park, a project of the Harris County Heritage Society, is a monument to the early history of Houston.

For a week each year, culture takes a leave of absence and everyone "Goes Texan"; when the Houston Fatstock Show and Rodeo comes to town the city becomes a mecca for fun, western style.

Houston is the "Gateway to the Moon" where the Manned Spacecraft Center is headquarters for the nation's new space exploration and astronauts.

The world-famed $125 million Texas Medical Center has placed Houston as a leader in medical science.

Houstonians are proud of their hometown. No doubt it has far exceeded the dream of its founders. Yet because the Allens dared dream, we hold their legacy: a bright light in the Lone Star State, Houston.

74th ANNIVERSARY CONVENTION

AMERICAN NUMISMATIC ASSOCIATION

HOUSTON, TEXAS

AUGUST 25 - 28

SHAMROCK HILTON HOTEL

WELCOME TO HOUSTON

A. I. Martin
GENERAL CHAIRMAN

FROM YOUR CONVENTION CHAIRMAN . . .

Warm greetings to our visitors attending the 74th Anniversary Convention of the American Numismatic Association. We are proud you chose to meet in our city. We in Houston may be young in numismatic history but you will find that we are enthusiastic in our interest and most sincere in our efforts to make your visit pleasant.

It is my pleasure to extend a cordial welcome from our host club, your capable chairmen, your hardworking committee members and all those who labor behind the scene. They have worked with a single purpose: to give you a memorable convention!

My sincere thanks to each and every colleague for untiring assistance and support. It has been an honor and a privilege to serve with you and for our parent organization.

Friends, enjoy your visit, stay long and come often to the "Land of the Tejas."

A. I. MARTIN
GENERAL CHAIRMAN

SAM HOUSTON STAMP APPEARED ON ALL CONVENTION MAIL

Sam Houston, foremost figure in the history of Texas and American patriot for whom Houston was named, decorated the official A.N.A. convention mail this year.

Numismatists who are also philatelists know the five-cent U. S. stamp was first issued in Houston December 13, 1963.

First President of the Republic of Texas, Sam Houston was also the first United States Senator to represent that new state when it entered the Union in 1845.

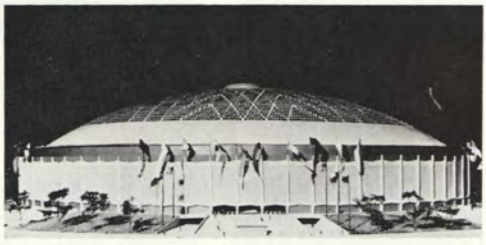
Take a Tour... Discover Houston!

City Tour. See colorful Houston, the south's first city! Travel non-stop in air-conditioned buses and see the high spots in the sixth largest U. S. city. You'll view the Domed Stadium, Houston's famed Medical Center which attracts Royalty and commoners as patients from around the world, Rice University, Sam Houston Park, museums, the Planetarium, the zoo, restored homes, downtown Houston, City Hall, Library, the Jesse H. Jones Hall for the Performing Arts (still under construction), parks, homes, and many, many other attractions.

Tours of the city are scheduled for Tuesday at 2 p.m.; Wednesday, Thursday and Friday at 9 a.m. Tickets are required, however they are free, compliments of the Greater Houston Coin Club. Each tour is limited to 50 and takes about two and one-half hours.



Domed Stadium Tour. Here is your opportunity to see Houston's eighth wonder of the world. Since no one is permitted to "roam the Dome" on his own, join the tour. You will go by bus; trained personnel will conduct the tour.

An over-all tour is promised so walking shoes are in order. Don't miss this. What would your friends say if you went home without going inside Houston's big bubble?

The $2.00 ticket covers all except a memento. Scheduled for Thursday 3 p.m. Return at 5 p.m.

Cruise and San Jacinto Battlefield Tour. Cruise down the Houston Ship Channel in the pleasure boat "Sam Houston." Then visit the San Jacinto Battleground, Monument, and Museum.

Eat lunch before leaving hotel. Casual clothes and comfortable shoes are recommended. Bus is air-conditioned, as is the "Sam Houston."

You will cruise down Houston's famed man-made waterway, view ships from around the world. Refreshments aboard ship are compliments of the Port of Houston — a welcome to each of you.

At the battleground, you will see the tallest monument in the world. The museum in its base will surprise you, not for its size but for the attractively displayed historical artifacts telling of Texas' Anglo-American and Spanish-American inheritances. We think you will carry pleasant memories of this visit. Should you care to take the elevator to enjoy a panoramic view of this historic area, it will cost 50c.

A tour of the Battleship U.S.S. Texas — at small cost — will be of interest. However, should you not care to go you may muse under the huge moss-draped oaks. It was here that General Santa Anna surrendered to General Sam Houston marking the beginning of Texas Independence in 1836.

All transportation is furnished for the $1.00 ticket. You take care of incidentals. Perhaps another dollar or so. Scheduled for Friday noon. Return about 5 p.m.

Museum Tour. Visit the displays at three Houston museums: Museum of Fine Arts, Museum of Natural Science, and the Planetarium. Enjoy contemporary and classical art plus special exhibits at the Fine Arts Museum; science and history exhibits at the Museum of Natural Science.

At the Planetarium you can attend an illustrated lecture, "Moon Spectacular" with celestial projection. This optional event requires an admission cost of $1.00 for adults, 50c for children (no infants under 5 permitted inside the Planetarium).

Scheduled for Saturday at 2 p.m., this tour of museums will be completed by 4 p.m. Planetarium show starts at 3 p.m. and lasts about an hour.

Optional tours and things to do on your own can be arranged at the Service Desk. Trips to the zoo for children where they can ride the Hermann Park train are an example.

A trip to the restored homes is another example. See the Kellum-Noble House, one of the first brick homes in Houston, a project of the Harris County Heritage Society in Sam Houston Historical Park.

For complete aid of any trips on your own, see the Service Desk. City bus schedules available there.

Security Room is available to all members of the American Numismatic Association who are officially registered for the convention (members must show their convention medal badge at Security Room). Hours are:

Monday, August 23.....Noon to 10:00 pm
Tuesday, August 24.....9:00 am to 10:00 pm
Wednesday, August 25.....8:00 am to 6:00 pm
Thursday, August 26.....10:00 am to 6:00 pm
Friday, August 27.....10:00 am to 6:00 pm
Saturday, August 28.....10:00 am to 6:00 pm
Sunday, August 29.....8:00 am to 4:00 pm
Monday, August 30.....8:00 am to Noon

All materials must be removed by noon Monday, August 30, or left at owner's risk.

DON'T MISS THE INFORMATIVE EDUCATIONAL PROGRAM

Chas. R. Hoskins
Moderator

Three talented numismatists and an able Treasury Department official highlight the Educational Forum at the 74th anniversary convention of the American Numismatic Association.

Under the direction of Charles R. Hoskins, Assistant Director of the Money Museum of the National Bank of Detroit, the program will be held at 8 PM, Thursday evening, August 26, in the Emerald Room of the Shamrock Hilton Hotel.

The subjects discussed hold widespread interest as Georgia gold coins, Mexican numismatics, minting techniques, and United States paper money are discussed by the four authorities.

Based on recent educational program attendance, several hundred persons are expected to attend. Seating begins at 7:30 PM.

Jackson Bennett

Athens, Georgia

"Templeton Reid: Assayer of Gold" reveals some newly discovered facts about Georgia gold coins.

Speaker Bennett is well known in numismatic circles for his knowledge of the coins of the West Indies and the Spanish Main. He has been untiring in his research into the history of Georgia gold.

Miguel L. Munoz

Mexico City, Mexico

"Mexico 1536: Prima Numisma America" concerns the clash of two monetary systems.

President of the Sociedad Numismatica de Mexico, Senor Munoz's reputation as a numismatic scholar is truly international in scope. He is an honorary member of the Sociedad Numismatica del Peru, the Academia Uruguaya de Numismatica y Bibliofilia, the Associacion Numismatica Espanola, the Sociedad Numismatica de Puebla and the Aztec Numismatic Society.

Thomas W. Becker

St. Louis, Missouri

"A History of Minting Methods" covers mint techniques from before 600 B.C. to the introduction of powered presses.

Writer Becker is best known in numismatics for his book, "World Commemorative Coins: Their Meaning and Symbolism." More than 30 of his articles have been published and a second book will soon be released.

Frank G. Uhler

Alexandria, Virginia

"The Modernization Program in the Bureau of Engraving and Printing" summarizes the field of currency production and associated government printing.

Currently Assistant Director of the Bureau of Engraving and Printing, Frank Uhler has successively held the positions of: research chemist, head of the research laboratory, chief of research and development engineering. He has conducted and directed extensive research on manufacturing paper money and other government securities.

Don't Miss the Banquet Spectaculars!

A more exotic setting for a social hour cannot be found than poolside at the Shamrock Hilton!

Here you will gather at 6:30, Saturday, August 28. Our honored guests will be the newly elected A.N.A. president and his lady.

While sipping refreshments, we will be entertained with an aquatic show. This water spectacular features the Corkettes — Texas beauties performing beautifully. This trophy winning swim team will present a colorful water ballet, exciting formations in the water and exhibition diving.

A water ski show will follow. Water skiing in a swimming pool! That's right. Champion skiers will zoom around the pool behind a 15-foot motorboat.

Spills, thrills, laughs, lovely girls and a new moon — who could ask for more? But this is just the hors d'oeuvres.

Your hosts will escort you into the Emerald Ballroom for the second phase of this fun-filled evening.

Our young men pages will be on hand to seat you for the banquet. Dining to the strains of music is always delightful. This treat will be provided by the muted strings of a noted ensemble.

If our genial master of ceremonies, Ralph (CURLEY!) Mitchell interrupts now and then, you won't mind. His quips add spice to any meal.

Banquet chairman Hirsh Schwartz solemnly promises that speeches will be conspicuous by their absence. Introductions are pared to the minimum.

Entertainment is both nostalgic and mirthful. Then it is dance time! Whether you dance, chitchat or relax, do enjoy every minute of this closing gala!

ITEM OF INTEREST

Texas Gold Coin Exhibited for First Time

On display for the first time in America will be a truly unusual item — a Texas gold coin!

The coin is overstruck on an eight escudo piece of Colombia, from the Papayan mint and dated 1825. The obverse bears the inscription "Republic · of · Texas · 1839" within an inner circle and a star on a wreath in the center.

This unique (?) Republic of Texas coin has been analyzed for metal content. Its weight and measurements are the same as the Colombia eight escudos of 1828.

The coin, turned up by a Preston, Minnesota, banker in 1876, remained in his family until only a few years ago. This controversial coin is on display in the Exhibit Room — an interesting first for this 74th Anniversary Convention.

The official medal was designed by two Houston numismatists, Diane Holmes and Doris Martin. From their sketches and ideas, Edward E. Grove of Drexel Hill, Penna., did the sculpturing.

Artist Grove has won equal fame as painter, sculptor and engraver. His many works include the engraved portraits, or vignettes, for nine United States postage stamps. One of which was the 1936 Texas Centennial commemorative issue.

Your official convention badge includes a ribbon draped bronze medal.

Exhibitors' Medal A First

This bronze uniface medal features both sides of the official convention medal which clearly marks it a memento of the 1965 Houston convention.

The inscription "For Merit of Exhibit" appears to glow from the rays of light emanating from the lamp of knowledge. This is the first year a specially designed medal has been struck for exhibitors at an A.N.A. convention. It is hoped that this award will become a tradition.

Each exhibitor will receive this medal with his name engraved on the reverse — a token of appreciation to those sharing their treasures and thereby enhancing the numismatic experiences of their fellow collectors.

Official Medals Available

Pairs of serially numbered silver and bronze official medals are available for purchase at the convention. The two medals are encased in a gold-lettered white plastic case.

OFFICIAL MEDALLION

General Sam Houston's statue, Texas' Lone Star Flag, and the American Numismatic Association's symbolic lamp of knowledge resting on a volume of ancient history — these are the devices of the official medal of the 74th Anniversary Convention of A.N.A.

Sam Houston, a Texas titan, is symbolic of Houston, your convention city. A more fitting symbol could not be found since this dynamic city was named in his honor — a man of vibrant abilities.

Unveiled August 16, 1925, the late Enrico Filberto Cerracchio's heroic equestrian statue, erected by public donations, stands guard at the entrance to Hermann Park, a shady retreat in the heart of Houston.

The familiar lamp of knowledge, a symbolism adapted from the seal of the American Numismatic Association, is depicted as spreading rays of numismatic enlightenment and fraternalism throughout the world "thereby nurturing and warming numismatists," say the designers.
